WHEREAS, During the 2001 legislative session, Christopher Ing has exceeded all standards with regard to qualities that are expected of a dedicated and competent legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Eager to learn more about the intricacies and idiosyncrasies of Tennessee state government and to aid in his studies, Christopher Ing brought his many skills to the State Capitol for the 2001 session of the One Hundred Second General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Christopher Ing is considering a career as a Financial Advisor because of his vast experience in buying and selling stocks with Edward Jones; further, he hopes to obtain a position in the political field later in life; and

WHEREAS, Office co-worker Gloria Gray is very appreciative of Christopher for his upbeat attitude, willingness to work under "any" condition and go the extra mile to get the job finished correctly; and

WHEREAS, Christopher Ing has performed his many responsibilities with extraordinary intelligence and alacrity; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, That we honor and commend Christopher J. Ing for his exemplary service as a legislative intern for Senator Jeff Miller and extend to him our best wishes for much continued success in his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
